Hi Stuart,

I found this stone in Cavallino near Venice on the beach.

Best wishes, Christine Pellech

==========

This white stone was inscribed in the spring of 63 BC near Bibracte in France, a great fortified city of the Aeduimi. It describes a raid by a hundred Boii led by Star, renegade Hand of the Aeduimi, on the farms of his two brothers, War and Storm, to kill as many of his relatives and their animals as possible. Toward the end of spring, a hundred or so families escaped certain death by migrating to Italy with their precious great white oxen, called Chianina. One young member carried this stone with her, to be found by Christine Pellech on Cavallino Beach near Venice.
